QUEER WITHIN THESE WALLS LITERARY EVENT

Wednesday, September 19, 2007

12:00 noon to 1:00 pm

Centre for Addiction and Mental Health, 33 Russell Street, Cafeteria

The CAMH LGBTTIQ Working Group is proud to present Queer Within These Walls, a literary event in which three local queer authors will read from their novels on themes of living and working within mental health institutions.

Short Q&A afterwards. Books will be on sale and authors will be available to sign books.

The event features:

Pat Capponi, author of Last Stop Sunnyside (HarperCollins, 2006)

Debra Anderson, author of Code White (McGilligan Books, 2005)

Farzana Doctor, author of Stealing Nasreen (Inanna, 2007)

Pat Capponi has carved a career for herself as an author, public speaker, group facilitator, and anti-poverty activist. Her five works of non-fiction and her new mystery series all centre around issues of poverty, mental illness, abandonment, and struggle. Check out www.patcapponi.ca for more information.

Debra Anderson is an award-winning writer and graduate of the York University Creative Writing Program, Ryerson's Publishing Program, as well as Simon Fraser's Summer Book Publishing Immersion Workshop. Under the name Three Ring Paper Productions, she is currently the organizer and promoter of the literary series Get Your Lit Out. She works in Toronto as a freelance editor and publicist and will be facilitating a Creative Writing Workshop at Word on the Street 2007. Code White is her first novel. For more details, drop by www.debraanderson.ca.

Farzana Doctor is a South Asian, queer writer whose work has been published in Siren Magazine, Trikone, Sightlines 7 Anthology, and Aurat Durbar. She has also had chapters, reviews, and articles published and edited books and journals, has co-written a manual for therapists, co-written plays, and co-produced a documentary video. Stealing Nasreen is her first novel. She is currently working on her second. She is also a social worker, educator, and consultant based in Toronto. For more information, check out www.farzanadoctor.com.

The CAMH LGBTTIQ Working Group is a group of queer-identified and queer-allied staff at the Centre for Addiction and Mental Health (CAMH). The Working Group raises awareness about homophobia, biphobia, and transphobia and works to create an inclusive environment at CAMH. For further inquiries about Queer Within These Walls, please contact Lorrie Simunovic at 416 535-8501 x 2693.

All are welcome at this free event. The venue is wheelchair accessible.

THE SELF-HELP RESOURCE CENTRE IS TWENTY YEARS OLD!

For two decades, The SHRC has provided referrals to thousands of people seeking support groups; training and consultations to new and existing groups; assisted professionals and agencies that work with self-help; and educated the public about the benefits of self-help/mutual aid methodologies.

Please join us on Tuesday, September 25, 2007 from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm to celebrate self-help.
40 Orchard View Boulevard, Room 200
(one block north of Eglinton Avenue, west of Yonge Street)

Learn about the Roots of Empathy Organization

Roots of Empathy is an evidence-based classroom program that has shown dramatic impact in reducing levels of aggression and violence among school children while raising social and emotional competence and increasing empathy. Learn how the Roots of Empathy uses many of the same principles of self-help, such as experiential learning, participatory democracy, and a culture of caring and social inclusion, to develop empathy, respect and non-violent communities in schools.

LAUNCH OF STREET HEALTH 2007 REPORT

Wednesday, September 19, 2007 at 10:00 am
Church of The Holy Trinity, 10 Trinity Square
(east of Bay Street, south of Dundas Street, behind the Eaton Centre)

The Street Health Report 2007 presents the findings of a survey of 368 homeless adults in Toronto on their health and access to health care. This study was conducted in the winter of 2006/2007 by Street Health, a community-based health care organization working with homeless and under-housed people in downtown Toronto. The Street Health Report 2007 reveals a picture of homelessness in Toronto that demands immediate action and outlines a series of recommendations to improve the health of homeless people and to ultimately end homelessness.

For more information call Kate Mason or Erika Khandor at 416 921-8668, or email kate@streethealth.ca or erika@streethealth.ca.
